

Tuesday 10/9 10-13

Introduction. Aims and usefulness. Presentation of course literature and exercises.
Information concerning schedule and examination. Lena Ambjörn (LA)
Basic concepts I. LA
Literature: Hempel

Thursday 12/9 10-12

Basic concepts II. LA
Literature: Hempel; Føllesdal; Popper

Tuesday 17/9 10-12

Examples of the relevance of Phil. of Science in Linguistics. Mikael Roll
Hypotheses versus open questions: presentation of practical examples connected to individual projects. LA

Thursday 19/9 10-12

Lecture on Kuhn. Robin Stenwall, theoretical philosophy
Literature: Kuhn, The structure of scientific revolutions

Tuesday 24/9 10-12

Some fundamental Phil. of Sc. questions. Group discussions. LA
Account of group discussions. LA
Literature: Popper, Kuhn, Føllesdal.

Thursday 26/9 10-13

Essay analysis. Group discussions. LA
Account, in plenum, of observations made by the groups. LA

[26/9 – 21/10: Production of individual papers.]

Monday 21/10: Distribution of preliminary versions of papers to all participants. (Mailinglist will be provided by LA)

Thursday 24/10 9-17

Seminar I: critical discussion of preliminary versions of papers, groups 1 and 2.

Friday 25/10 9-17

Seminar II: critical discussion of preliminary versions of papers, groups 3 and 4.

All participants are welcome to both seminars. To attend one of the two seminars is mandatory.

Friday 1/11: deadline for final versions; please turn in your papers to LA:
lena.ambjorn@mellost.lu.se.